

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., MAY 8, 1884.

ROSSER & MCABERTY
Publishers and Proprietors.
TO WHOM ADVERTISE ALL COMMUNICATIONS

The old lady's at the rake for the honey-suckle cake.
And the old man's patchin' up the garden wall.
For 'tis he that's battered in many a place, thick and thin.
At night when folks should have hired a hall.

COUNTY COURT and Court of Claims next week.

VANCEBAG is to have an opera house. The building contracts have already been made.

In spite of all reports to the contrary there is no scarcity of tobacco plants in this county.

The steamers Hattie Brown and Racket tried their speed this morning, the former making the best time.

It is said if the Legislature adjourns next Monday that a considerable amount of important business will be left unfinished.

In consequence of the depressed coal trade in the Pittsburgh region about 8,000 miners will be thrown out of employment.

It is said that the flood drove great numbers of rats into the country, and that the farmers have suffered by their depredations.

The asparagus this season is much finer than usual. The deposit left on the beds by the overflow of the river appears to have greatly benefited them.

The planing mills and saw mills are very busy and have large orders ahead. Mayville is well supplied with building material and prices are very low.

The Ripley Bee and Times says: Geo. A. Stivers, the gentlemanly mail agent on the steamer Morning Mail, received a handsome gold watch, by express, a few days since, from some unknown person.

MR. JOHN BALKENGER has a fine collection of diamonds to which he invites attention. They range in price from $75 to $600, and are warranted to be of the first water. The public is invited to call and look at them.

The bright and plucky little Cincinnati Evening Post now has a circulation of 6,000, and has become a power in that city. It is the avowed enemy of fraud in all forms, in high and low places, and the staunch friends of right and justice.

The average price of three hundred and fifteen hundred pounds of tobacco sold at Cincinnati, yesterday, was $8.94, against $7.96 for four hundred and nineteen hundred pounds sold the same day last year. The highest price paid was for three hundred pounds of old tobacco which brought $20 and $21.50.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The superintendents, teachers, pupils and friends of the Sunday schools of Mayville and the pastors and members of the churches, are urgently invited to meet at the Christian Church, to-morrow (Friday) night, at 7:30, to discuss measures for the increase of Sunday school interest in Mayville and to make arrangements for the Mason County Sunday School Convention. A full attendance is requested. The meeting last week miscarried through misunderstanding. The time is short and prompt action is necessary.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Duly are visiting their friends at Titton.
Mr. L. H. Parker is a candidate for sheriff of Lewis County.
Mr. Wm. D'Atley died at Poplar Flat, Lewis County, on the 4th inst.
Mr. S. R. Brooks, who returned from Richmond, Ky., in ill health, is much better.
Mr. John A. Seaton, formerly of this city, is the manager for the Standard River Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, one of the most important corporations of that city.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Miss Lizzie Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. John Fitzgerald, who lives in the lower part of the city, near Pogue & Co's distillery, was discovered on the afternoon of the 6th inst., in an insensible condition, in the yard of her father's residence, with a heavy railroad tie lying across her body. It is supposed that she attempted to move one of several pieces of timber that were piled up in the yard and that the piece fell upon her. Though the skull is not broken her condition is considered very serious. She recovered consciousness shortly after the accident, but has since been speechless. This morning she is resting easier and is considered a little better by her physicians.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Blanche, young daughter of L. C. A. Reide, is very sick.
Candidates beginning to swarm like bees around a sugar barrel.
The Clipper shades is getting to be prominent.
It is with regret we chronicle the serious illness of Mr. Wm. Hood, Sr., one of our most worthy citizens.
Mr. John Hood, of Manchester, and Mrs. Chas. Hibbard, of Hood, of Cincinnati, were attending the bedside of their father, Hibbard, Leggett and Cresskirk, of Ripley, were informed Monday night, and as they are loved ones, they are very anxious to be present for one of our social rooms and we are informed, she is a competent teacher.
Campbell & Co. have indeed a fine appointed drug store and manufacture the best perfume in this country.
The hotel is refitted and refurbished from top to bottom and the management are using every endeavor to make guests comfortable.
Major Lucas, the well known railroad man, is at home.
Col. Charles Trub of Kentucky, was in the city Wednesday.
The debating society (colored) held their meeting Wednesday night.

COUNTY POINTS.

MAYVILLE.
James Porter, who was with us so long in the lumber business, was with us a short time this week.
The widows, the maids and young ladies of this vicinity do not seem to profit much by this, the long year.
The matrimony fever is not raging in this community this spring, notwithstanding the great quantity of material on hand.
J. A. Jackson & Son have just received a large line of custom-made boots and shoes for ladies, gentlemen and children.
Miss Jennie Evans returned from Fleming last Friday night, the joy of her mother and friends here.
Rev. L. N. Early and his new wife headed south here last Friday. Big dinner are now in vogue.
We had a severe rain and hail storm here Tuesday afternoon.
The farmers are very much behind with corn planting. Too much rain.
Sanford S. Mitchell and T. G. Worthington left last Sunday for Lewis County to catch a big pipe.
The outlook for a good crop was never better than the present season.
Lew & Crane are, this week, putting the finishing touch on the new Catholic Church in this place. They have also just finished the widow Layton's house.

Looking for a Bank.

Yesterday afternoon an officer patrolling (trifling) observed a stranger closely scanning the various buildings, as if measuring their dimensions with his eye, and finally retired if he was looking for any particular bank.
"I'm looking for a bank," was the reply.
"Well, there's half a dozen on the street."
"Yes, but I ain't quite satisfied. I've turned over a new leaf and am going to start a bank account. Here's a $2 bill I'm going to put in as a nest egg."
"Well, I guess it will be safe with any of them."

"Mebbe so, but I'm kinder mixed. If I bank with a forty-story building like enough a cyclone will blow it down, and shave off about two stories. If I bank with any of the two-story fellows mebbe they'll get the floor to somebody who'll dig down into the vaults and give me my cash."
The officer left him in a state of doubt, but two hours later found him in the alley in rear of the post-office happy.

"Have you got over your doubt?"
"I asked the blue-coat, as he kindly coughed him."
"What you mean?"
"Why, about the bank."
"Yes, yes—yes, yes; steed of taking four or five dollars, and a little difference and left all money in three-story saloon! Whoop! Turned over a new leaf and going to start 'er bank myself!"

"Good morning, Miss Anderson," remarked Lawrence Barrett highly, as he was called to the reception room of that great actress.
"Good morning, Mr. Barrett, she replied, sweetly.
"Thanks, but I have only a moment to stop. I dine with a Prince to-day. Ah—er—more likely to inquire if you are connected to one the Atlantic cable to-day."
"I think not," replied Mary, referring to the title of her new song, "I believe there is nothing I care to communicate to the American public before to-morrow."
"Ah, thanks; then I will avail myself of the opportunity. I scored a decided hit last night before a large and appreciative audience. Good morning!"—Telegraph.

The title of a new song is "Papa's Home Tonight." He probably had to tuck down carpets and hang pictures.—New York Journal.

"What is it that you like about that girl?" asked one young man of another. "My arm," was the brief reply.—Burlington Free Press.

"If I love you'll give, no more I'll ask," sings a fair poetess. "Yes, that's what they all say beforehand; but what does it amount to—Burlington Free Press.

Of the many remedies before the public for nervous debility and weakness of nerve generative system, there is none equal to Allen's Brain Food, which promptly and permanently restores all lost vigor;—if never fails. $1 a package, 6 for $5—At druggists or by mail from W. H. Allen, 315, First Avenue, New York City. c521(3)

The Testimony of a Physician.
James Beecher, M. D., of Signorette, Iowa, says: "For several years I have been using a rough balsam called Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and in almost every case throughout my practice I have had entire success. I have used and prescribed hundreds of bottles since the days of my army practice (1863) when I was surgeon of Hospital No. 7, Louisville, Ky."

The Ice Question.
Where do you buy your ice? The Mayville Artificial Ice Company is selling the best ice in the world at a less price than is usually asked for inferior ice. No cultivated person making any pretensions to cleanliness will use any other than the manufactured ice. It is clean, clear and tasteless, free from all impurities and is made from distilled water. Send your orders to the office on Wall street, or give them to the driver of the delivery wagon. m521

Question Your Druggist.
And he will tell you, that there is a greater demand for Sordozin than for any other preparation for the teeth. Then ask yourself whether an article for which the demand is general and constant, must not possess genuine merit. The mental response will be that it does. Since the conclusion is irresistible, that if it did not really polish and preserve the teeth, a discerning public would long since have discovered the fact. It advertises itself.

In a long letter to the Chicago Inter-Ocean, Chauncey T. Filler, of St. Louis, denies the published statement that he had declared that the Missouri delegation was for Arthur under circumstances, and if his delegates voted for his nomination he would not vote to make it unanimous. He says he will fall into line and abide by the choice of the party. He says that the latest of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat Republican faction has been buried so deep as to render it entirely harmless.

The Quackenbush Tragedy.
Clyde, N. Y., May 8.—George Quackenbush, who shot his wife and two children at Savannah, Saturday afternoon, was taken before Justice Hall, Monday, for examination and was committed, at Lyons, to wait grand jury action. This evening Mrs. Quackenbush and children are alive but their conditions are precarious. Quackenbush claims the shooting was accidental. The woman made an ante-mortem statement before Justice Hall today, in which she said:

"I am the wife of George Quackenbush. On Saturday, Quackenbush started for the woods to shoot some cattle that were trespassing on his premises. When about four rods from the house he said to me: 'Come—do you, I have a notion to shoot you.' He then turned and went a few steps, and again said: 'Come—do you, I will shoot you and dropped on one knee, deliberately took aim and shot me and our two children. I make this statement in view of my approaching death."

A Cool, Villainous Murder.
CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 8.—Yesterday morning F. H. Proctor heard some one calling his name. Stepping to the door, he was confronted by a white man named Isaac Thompson. Thompson held a pistol in his hand and took quick aim and fired. Proctor fell to the ground, mortally wounded. His death occurred within a few moments. The cause of the shooting is said to have been a dispute over a grade that existed for a long time between the two. Thompson was found by one of the pursuing parties at the house of his brother, near Broad Station, and was taken, guarded by twenty armed men, to Lincolnton Station.
